Synopsis

The Final Report of the NHS Next Stage Review (the "Darzi Report") was published on 30 June 2008.

This builds on and draws from the work undertaken in each of the Strategic Health Authorities in England. The Trust had a significant input into the plans developed by NHS South Central and outlined in "Towards a healthier future".

A summary of the Darzi report is attached. Over the summer the Trust will be addressing the implications of the report and developing its response. A report will be presented to the Trust Board in the autumn.

Financial, legal and risk impact

None.
